OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

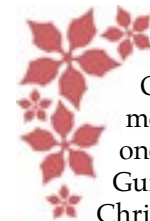

Today is Shoebox Dedication Sunday. Your financial support for this project will also be greatly appreciated—please make your check out to FPC with Shoeboxes in the memo line.

FPC is partnering with the Salvation Army to provide Christmas gifts for children in our community. To participate you may pick an Angel tag off the tree in Swetenburg Hall, purchase the gifts for the child listed on the tag, and return gifts to the tree unwrapped by Wednesday, December 1.

POINSETTIAS

Ordering poinsettia plants in memory or in honor of loved one(s) helps the Chancel Flower Guild decorate the church for Christmas. You may find order forms at the information tables. The cost is $13 each.

LEADING IN THE SERVICE this morning are Lee Koontz, Senior Pastor; Shon Peppers, Associate Pastor; Margaret Turney-Ayer, Interim Director of Faith Development; Morning Light Praise Team; Audio/Visual Team.

FAMILY PROMISE CHRISTMAS STORE

Family Promise will have their annual Christmas store on December 7-8. This store will allow struggling children and families to purchase gifts at reduced prices for their loved ones for the Christmas season. There will be a box by the church office to collect new toys. The toys need to be delivered to the church before Thanksgiving. An easier way to give is through familypromisehall.org/christmas-donate to select toys from Amazon or Target and have them shipped directly to Family Promise located at 3606 McEver Road, Oakwood, GA 30566. You can also make a monetary donation in support of the Christmas Store. Thank you in advance for your support for this worthwhile project and vital ministry for Gainesville/Hall County.

GLADIATORS HOCKEY
